Key International, with The Related Cos. and Wexford Real Estate Investors, acquired 116,627 square feet of office space in West Palm Beach for $35 million. Key also is developing Snug Harbor, a multifamily community with an eatery and marina in St. Petersburg.

Birthplace: Madrid

Education: B.S., business, Pepperdine University

I went into real estate because: It was a lifelong passion to continue the family legacy started by my father.

Deal that launched my career: Our first large-scale land acquisition in Brickell in 2004

South Florida's next hot market: Class A office and beachfront towns on the east and west coasts

Tip for protégés: Pursue a career you are passionate about.

Event that changed me: The financial crisis of 2008
